Stick Man Story

It was a dark night Stick Man had children and a wife and Stick man said Santa was here. The children opened their presents and then they went to bed. The Stick Man went for a jog in the morning. A dog found the Stick Man, but the man took it away. A little girl found the Stick Man and threw it in the water. He was far away from the family tree and he says "how lonely I am!". He landed on a beach and a little girl said "here is a perfect stick for the stick man". He was dreaming about his family and Santa comes. Stick Man said "stick man and out come a postcard. Santa takes Stick Man back to the family tree and his family was very happy to see the Stick Man.

Long thin brown broomstick swoosh!

It has a very woody smell.
It is going quickly through the sky
over forests and mountains Feel the wind.
see the stars up near clouds
as high as a bird.

Stick Man and the water

Stick man lives in a stone cottage by a river. How small the cottage was! The cottage had a little garden, a little table and bench and chairs. One day he wakes early and decides to fish.
