

Hyde Park Schools WRITING PROGRESSION MAP YEAR TWO

AUTUMN ONE Content: Writing to Entertain Stories with familiar settings and predictable ending about giants. Core Texts Jack and The Beanstalk Jim and the Beanstalk The Selfish Giant	AUTUMN TWO Content: Writing to Entertain Core Text: Chocolate Fever- story with a simple dilemma and a moral	SPRING ONE Content: Writing to Inform (Linked to GFOL unit) Recounts, including diaries, chronological reports Poetry Unit (1 week) Using senses to describe events in GFOL and experiment with alliteration :	SPRING TWO Content: Writing to Inform Instructions, explanations, non-chronological reports	SUMMER ONE Content: Writing to Entertain Stories about creatures from fantasy worlds. Core Texts: Paper Bag Princess The Great Dragon Race or LaoLao of Dragon Mountain	SUMMER TWO Content: Writing to Inform Instructions, postcards, simple leaflets, recounts Poetry Unit (1 week) Key Question What makes information texts interesting to read?
Focus for the Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understanding how a character feels and why. - Being able to understand & retell a story from a characters viewpoint 	Focus for the Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Exploring a how characters are different in a story. - Exploring how characters actions reflect their personalities. 	Focus for the Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To look at the different ways information can be presented - Be able to record information in a variety of ways. 	Focus for the Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Exploring language used in these non-fiction texts. - Understanding the importance of meaning being clear and easily understood. 	Focus for the Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Exploring how plots and characters are different in stories. - Exploring how characters change over the course of a story. 	Focus for the Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Exploring the purpose and audience for different types of texts. - Exploring the structural and language features of these texts
Key Question Why is it important to understand how a character feels in stories?	Key Question Why do we need to read information texts?	Key Question What did Wilfred learn from what happened and what have you learnt?	Key Question Why do we need to make sure that information texts can be understood and how do we do it?	Key Question How and why do characters change over time from the beginning to end of a story?	Key Question What makes information texts interesting to read?

Hyde Park Schools WRITING PROGRESSION MAP YEAR TWO

KEY SKILLS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To be able to expand simple sentences by stating characters actions and motives or feelings. • To be able to different simple coordinating and subordinating conjunctions to link two ideas in their sentences. • To be able to start a sentence with words other than “then”, using a time adverb word bank. • Begin to start sentence with ‘where’ adverbials. • To be able to use a range of simple adjectives to describe settings, and characters feelings • Use powerful verbs to imply characters feelings. • To begin to be able to write consistently in either 1st or 3rd person or past tense. • To punctuate work correctly and check work to make sure it makes sense. 	KEY SKILLS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write sentences with more than one idea which are linked by a range of simple coordinating and subordinating conjunctions. • Use simple time adverbs and adverbials phrases to link ideas between sentence • Use factual descriptive adjectives and simple expanded noun phrases to give more detail. • To be able to write in 1st or third person in the past tense. • To be able to read back to check sentences makes sense and punctuate work correctly. • Use alliteration and more adventurous language to describe their senses when writing their poems. • 	KEY SKILLS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expand on simple ideas to state characters motives and feelings using simple coordinating and subordinating conjunctions. • Use some simple time place and manner adverbials to link ideas between sentences. • Use some powerful verbs and adverbs to imply how a character feels • Begin to use a range of simple adjectives and expanded noun phrases to paint a picture for the reader. • Use punctuation correctly including exclamation marks and apostrophes accurately. • Check work for meaning and edit careless spelling and punctuation errors. 	KEY SKILLS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write a series of ideas, which are linked using a range of simple adverbs and adverbial phrases. • Use simple coordinating and subordinating conjunctions to link ideas within sentences, to explain how and why. • Use simple factual adjectives and expanded noun phrases to give precise detail. • Use adverbs sometimes in instructions to show how to do something • Write in present and past tense and in second or third person. • Check work for meaning and careless spelling and punctuation errors 	KEY SKILLS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expand on simple ideas to state characters motives and feelings using simple coordinating and subordinating conjunctions to link ideas. • Use some simple time place and manner adverbials to link ideas between sentences. • Use some powerful verbs and adverbs to show how a character feels. • Use a range of simple adjectives and expanded noun phrases to paint a picture for the reader. • Use punctuation correctly including exclamation marks and apostrophes accurately • Check work for meaning and careless spelling and punctuation errors. 	KEY SKILLS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expand on simple ideas to create longer sentences. • Use a wider range of simple co-ordinating and subordinating conjunctions. • Use a range of simple adverbs and adverbial phrases to link ideas between sentences. • Use a wider range of simple co-ordinating and subordinating conjunctions to link ideas within sentences • Use simple noun phrases and adjectives to add more detail. • Use capital letters and full stops correctly throughout the writing and use question marks and exclamation marks and apostrophes accurately.
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Hyde Park Schools WRITING PROGRESSION MAP YEAR TWO

LEARNING OUTCOMES Children will be able to:	LEARNING OUTCOMES Children will be able to:	LEARNING OUTCOMES Children will be able to:	LEARNING OUTCOMES Children will be able to:	LEARNING OUTCOMES Children will be able to:	LEARNING OUTCOMES Children will be able to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify all the main features of a story: setting, main characters, problem, key events, climax and resolution. • Identify and use simple story language in texts. • Raise questions around a story and make predictions based on what they have read. Use these predictions to write the next part of a story. • Be able to write in role explaining the characters feelings and re-telling the story from a characters point of view. • State the characters motives and feelings as well as their actions • Compare and contrast characters and express a viewpoint about them. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify and compare the plots of different stories, identifying: problem, key events, climax & resolution. • Making predictions and writing the next episode. • Express an opinion about a character and in simple terms explain their motives and feelings. • Rewrite stories stating characters motives and feelings. • Write in role, giving characters side of events. • Change aspects of the original story to write a new version: (E.g. change setting and characters or change the problem.) • Identify dialogue in text including use of speech marks and use in their writing. (HA only expected to do this.) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the different ways information texts can be presented. • Identify some of the structural and language features of non-chronological reports and different types of recounts and annotate simple texts to show the different features. • Understand how diagrams, charts, labels and captions are used in non-fiction texts. • Extract key words and phrases from texts. • Use key words and phrases to create sentences • Apply the structural and language features of texts deconstructed in their writing. • Understand where and when to use apostrophes. In their writing. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the different ways information texts can be presented. • Identify some of the structural and language features of different information texts: instructions, explanation, and non-chronological reports. • Annotate texts to show the different features. • Understand how diagrams, charts, labels and captions are used in non-fiction texts • Use their knowledge about topic sentences to help them decide what each paragraph is about in a piece of information text. • Write a set of instructions applying the features identified in texts examined. • Write simple explanations using simple casual 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the features of fantasy stories and explore the settings, plots and characters and be able to identify characteristics of good and bad characters. • Compare and contrast fantasy stories: settings, characters, plots & resolutions. • Track and explain how and why characters change over the course of a story. • Infer characters motives and feelings from their actions. • Know when and how to use dialogue in their stories. • Write in role as a character, giving their motives and feelings and viewpoints including through a letter. • Write the next part of a story based on their predictions and their understanding of the character. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the structural and language features of recounts written in second person and postcards and compare and contrast them. • Know what the purpose of a leaflet is and be able to identify some of the structural and language features • Identify the structural and language features of instruction texts • Scan a text to find specific information by reading the title, subheading, topic sentences, looking at the pictures and diagrams. • Use factual language: adjectives and simple expanded nouns to specify and give more detail. • Demonstrate a range of writing skills and their ability to apply the features of a particular text.

Hyde Park Schools WRITING PROGRESSION MAP YEAR TWO

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Change elements of well-known stories to create new pieces of writing. • Understand the features of a letter and know how they are different from a story. • Write a letter which expresses a character's thoughts and feelings to another character in a story. • Apply spelling strategies, and phonic knowledge in their writing. • Use punctuation throughout their work using exclamation and question marks. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Check their work makes sense and begin to identify and correct simple grammar and punctuation errors with some support 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Know the difference between past and present tense. • Check their work makes sense and begin to identify and correct simple grammar and punctuation errors with some support. POETRY UNIT Children will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify words and phrases that engage the reader. • Look at how rhyme is used in poetry. • Create their own poem applying techniques identified in poems analysed. 	conjunctions: because, since, even though, as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Begin to use some technical language in their writing. • Use commas to separate lists. • Check their work makes sense and begin to identify and correct simple grammar and punctuation errors with some support. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognise some different sentence openers and powerful descriptive vocabulary in texts and use in their own writing. • Write with increasing accuracy when using punctuation including dialogue. (HA only) 	POETRY OUTCOMES. Children will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify words and phrases that create humour, and sound effects in poetry, e.g., tongue-twisters, riddles. • Classify poems into simple types. • Use humorous verse as a structure and write their own by adaptation, or substitution; to invent own riddles, tongue twisters, jokes, nonsense sentences etc.
Independent Writing Task: Children to plan and write their own version of the story Jack and The Beanstalk (Plan done prior to the writing session.)	Independent Writing Task Different version of the story	Independent Writing Task Diary	Independent Writing Task Instructions	Independent Writing Task Own fantasy story	Independent Writing Task Leaflet with information about going to the seaside.

Hyde Park Schools WRITING PROGRESSION MAP YEAR TWO