10th March 2017

Dear Parents,

It has been an exciting end to the week with the children of Sycamore Class presenting a very theatrical assembly based on The Fire of London. We were treated to drama tableaux, songs, pictures and information as well as a rebuild of London by Sir Christopher Wren. Well done to all the children who took part in this assembly and thank you to all the parents who turned up and applauded so enthusiastically.

Red Nose Day

We will be raising money for Comic Relief on Friday 24th March and we ask you to donate a Golden Coin (£1.00 or £2.00) to this cause. On the day you are invited to wear something red to school which could be a hat, badge or nose (name the noses please) or you can wear the special red nose day tee shirts/outfits or go extravagant with a totally red costume. I shall leave it up to you!

We will have 'comical' opportunities in school and will try and raise as much money as possible to support the Comic Relief charity. Parents are most welcome to join in by wearing red in the playground on Friday 24th March.

Children's University

The Children's University are holding a 'graduation ceremony' on 27th April in the Rolle Marquee at 6pm for children who have completed their first gold level (100 hours) or who have completed another 100 hours since the last graduation ceremonies in September. If your child is eligible to attend, this is what you need to do:

- Book a place for your child and up to 2 guests by the end of Monday 13th March at the Infant School office
- When booking a place, inform us of your child's name, their passport number, the number of hours completed and how many guests you would like to attend (maximum of 2)

Dealing with anxiety/frustration CAMHS course

The Plymouth Parent Carers' Voice group are running a free course for parents who have a child with SEND (Special Educational Needs/Disabilities) to provide advice and support from professionals on how to cope with your child's and your own anxieties and frustrations when dealing with everyday tasks. The event is on Tuesday 28th March from 9.30 to 11.30 at the Lower Guildhall in Royal Parade. No need to book! Just go along on the day!

As well as trying to get out in the garden at the weekend, I am going to hunt around for something red as this year; I shall try and wear as many red items of clothing as possible for Red Nose Day. Thank you to Joshua who has already bought me a red nose which I think I will attach to a ribbon and wear as a necklace as it keeps slipping off my nose!

Have a lovely weekend!

RED
NOSE
DAY

Yours sincerely,

E.A. Hill
