23rd November 2018

Dear Parents,

Thank you to all the parents who put in their requests for 2 tickets to the Christmas Performance of Tinsel and Tea towels. The tickets are in your child's book bag today. There are a few parents who have not yet requested their tickets and now there are no tickets available for Friday 7th or Monday 10th. Please send in your request if you have not yet done so.

Assembly today

The children met Kay from the Oxfam shop on Mutley plain and found out about the animals, including bees that the Oxfam shop are hoping to send to families abroad so that they can make a living from the milk, the eggs, the meat or the honey.

The children's faces on snowflake mobiles will be definitely up in the shop from 1st December and the children are invited in to find their face and receive an Oxfam sticker from any member of staff. There is no need to buy anything as it is hoped that people will come into the shop to make purchases and to see the mobiles in the shop. I did take the opportunity to buy some gifts and some wrapping paper and cards which the children saw me purchase in a pop up shop in the assembly hall.

Christmas post box

Our Christmas post box will be open for use on Monday. If your child wants to send a card, please help them to address the envelope with the child's name and class. No need for a stamp! The post-box will be outside the office by the mirror and the children can come in (with an adult) before school or after school to post their cards. If making your own cards, please make sure that glue is dry before putting them in the box.

School Photographs

Tracey, our school photographer was in this morning to take Pre School and their siblings from across both schools for their booked appointments. Proofs should be in book bags today. Orders need to be returned by Monday 3rd December.

It has been another busy week across the school and as well as the usual learning, the children are working on learning songs, dances and in some cases, words, for our Christmas play. You will shortly be receiving costume requests from the class teachers if you have not already been contacted.

Next week we are getting ready for the PTFA Christmas Fayre. Please volunteer to help out and please send your child to school with donations on Wednesday and Thursday (Mufti may be worn on these days) and then cake donations on Friday (Christmas t-shirt or jumper day)

Have a lovely weekend and I look forward to seeing everybody back safely at school on Monday.

Yours sincerely,

E.A. Hill
